

Joelle Murray is passionate about illustration, character design, and visual development for film, games, books, and comics. She also has a great love for dance, which brings a unique point of view as she works. Joelle has two picture books and two I Can Reads forthcoming with Greenwillow, and she also illustrates for the Khan Academy Kids app.

I'D LOVE TO ILLUSTRATE a picture book with characters that have out-of-this-world, pastel-colored skin and hair tones, reminiscent of desserts. Or a book of favorite fairy tales set in the '80s and '90s!
